Mission Statement— Catholic Charities strives to live out the Gospel message of Jesus by acting as a leaven, enabling and empowering individuals, families, groups, parish communities and other organizations to respond more fully to the Gospel. Catholic Charities is committed to enhancing the quality of life for all people, through service and advocacy, regardless of race, economic standing or creed. We are committed to sustaining, protecting and promoting those among us who are most vulnerable.

History/Overview of Services— Catholic Charities began in 1914 to provide care and protection to orphans and single mothers. Since then the agency has grown to provide assistance to individuals, families and groups through direct social services, consultation, case management services, resources and in-service training for parish-based ministry programs, advocacy and justice education. While several programs are coordinated from a particular office, most services are available throughout the diocese.
